Malaysia Deposit Insurance Corporation (PIDM)
Session 7: IFIGS Workshop: Crisis Communication

Table of Contents

Crisis Preparedness Binder Governance 1

Revision History 1

Annotated binder outline – executive summary 3

1. Overview 6
1.1. Purpose 6
1.2. Scope 6
1.3. How to read and treat the document 9

2. Inter-agency interactions 11
2.1. Guidelines 11
2.2. Stakeholder overview 11

3. Inter-agency external communications 13
3.1. Scope and principles 13
3.2. Joint communication activities 13
3.2.1. Coordination activities 14

4. Overarching risks and mitigation 15

5. Inter-agency responsibilities and information sharing across the stress stages 16
5.1. [Stress Stage X] 17
5.1.1. [Stress Stage X – Main process step X] 18

Appendix 1: Acronyms 20

Appendix 2: Glossary 20

Appendix 3: Contact List 20

Appendix 4: Forms and templates 21

Note that section 5 will be the most extensive part of the binder as it will provide a description of all relevant processes within each stress stage

Content for workshop 1 (08th September):

Chapter 1 I Overview: Alignment on the foundation of the binder incl. assumptions made, definitions and common stress stages framework

Chapter 2 I Inter-Agency Governance: Clarifications on shared powers and alignment on an inter-agency committee

Content for workshop 2 (08th September):

Chapter 5 I Inter-agency responsibilities and information sharing across stress stages: Alignment on the inter-agency collaboration along common stress stages framework, incl. considerations or decision-making principles for selected areas

– Including focus on priority content areas

Content for workshop 3 (11th September):

Chapter 5 (Continued) I Inter-agency responsibilities and information sharing across stress stages: Alignment on the inter-agency collaboration along common stress stages framework, incl. considerations or decision-making principles for selected areas

– Including focus on priority content areas

Chapter 3 I Inter-agency external communications: Alignment on the inter-agency collaboration along common stress stages framework, focused on external communications, and the need of joint communication activities

Chapter 4 I Overarching risks and mitigation: List of regulations requiring attention

Chapter 2 I Inter-Agency Governance (continued): Communication guidelines PIDM and BNM agree to follow for activities covered by the binder